

Light Consolations

Built in solid recycled teak with shutters in birch plywood, this pair of sideboards features storage with distinct decorative designs to the front. Featuring varying carved patterns both in relief and cut through, these reveal the alternating light and dark layers of the birch ply. The perforations are useful for ventilation of shoes or home linen. The legs are profiles in steel plate clad with wood.

Materials

recycled teak | birch plywood | mild steel

