

Shoe-in

Built in solid recycled teak with shutters in birch plywood, this pair of storage units is staggered in height and features storage with distinct decorative designs to the front. Varying carved patterns both in relief and cut through, reveal the alternating light and dark layers of the birch ply. The perforations are useful for ventilation of shoes or home linen. The legs are profiles in steel plate clad with wood.

Materials

recycled teak | birch plywood | mild steel

