
Plectrum Side Table

Three tapered wooden legs hold up a small top of roughly triangular shape with softened corners – resembling a guitar pick. The table top is of white marble in leather finish. The legs are connected at the base with slim metal profiles which hold a shelf in tinted glass, of the same shape as the top. Ideal as a coffee table by a favourite chair or sofa.

Materials

recycled teak | birch plywood | marble | tinted glass | mild steel

